President of Obilic, Mr Stevan Sipka said "we are very excited to be hosting DMC this year. We are already getting positive enquiries from Perth, Canberra, Wollongong, Adelaide, Brisbane and Melbourne. We aim to run junior competitions for u/14, u/16 & u/18 boys. We will also hold traditional division 1 & 2 men's competitions along with a ladies competition".

Vice-President of Obilic, Mr Zoran Salipur said "Our boys have returned from playing against some great cubs in the fatherland and I feel we will be well prepared to have our best DMC ever. We really want to win in front of our home supporters".

This year's DMC will be demanding and teams should prepare for two days of competitive basketball. Obilic will commence DMC festivities with the traditional welcoming party on the evening Saturday 22 December at the Bonnyrigg Sports Club.

Teams wishing to enter in DMC 2012 will need to register by the 9th December and entry forms can be found on www.obilic.com.au. Late entries will not be accepted.

Virgin Australia has provided special Obilic fares to support travel to and from Sydney between the 21st December and 27th December 2012. To access these special airfares, the promotional code DMCPROMO needs to be entered into the Promo Code field when booking flights on virginaustralia.com. Special fares will be available until the 17th of October.
